RUIN FOR REBUILDING IN A REMOTE LOCATION; MARMELETE

Marmelete

Detailed description

A 192m2 ruin located on a 3360m2 plot of land surrounded by beautiful trees, nestled in a valley 15 minutes drive from the Portuguese village of Marmelete.

The ruin , designated for habitation, is in need of being completely rebuilt; there is another ruin on the neighbouring plot and a small farmstead opposite.

Access is via a dirt track (4WD recommended) 15 - 20 minutes to Marmelete, where there are basic amenities (mini market, café, gas station) and 45 minutes to the town of Aljezur and the beaches of this area. No electricity, water from a pond/ springs.

This is the perfect location for anyone wanting to get ‘away from it all’ and be at one with nature. A great project offering real potential to someone with vision and energy!
