Farm with historical roots in the heart of Alentejo

In Ferreira do Alentejo, right in the heart of the Alentejo plain, we are greeted by this 18-hectare property, located 1h30 drive from Lisbon and 1h30 from Vilamoura.

Historically rich, the manor house is centennial, where beauty has always been a cherished value, inspired by Moorish architecture. It once was the set of a classic Portuguese movie, "Os Fidalgos da Casa Mourisca", and stage for a concert of the world renowned fado singer Amália Rodrigues.

It is surrounded by a lush garden, with plants and trees from almost all over the world, bordering the 2-hectare lake, where several species of waterfowl and fish abound.

The agro-industry side of the property, consisting of an walnut orchard, is fully equipped and gives a whole and complete cycle, from tree to shelf.

A pre approved project by the local municipality (Câmara Municipal de Ferreira do Alentejo) allows the construction of touristic infrastructure up to 5.000 sqm.
