A COMPORTA " THE HAMPTONS OF EUROPE "

Comporta is located on the Tróia peninsula.

This stunning coastal enclave is characterised by beaches stretching for kilometres along the coast, rice paddies, vineyards, pine forests and golf courses, one of which was recently awarded one of the best courses in Europe.

The region is also part of the captivating Sado Estuary Nature Reserve. In recent years, several luxury resorts have sprung up in this area on the south-west coast of Portugal, making Comporta one of the most exclusive destinations in Europe.
