Land for construction tourist development-Santiago do Cacém

This Alentejo property is a well-kept secret, a treasure waiting to be discovered to build a piece of paradise.Between Earth and Sky, this meeting of nature takes place, where cork oak forests live and grow in their natural habitat, offering the best quality cork in the world.In the Santiago do Cacém area, this real estate project is being promoted, approved for the construction of a rural tourism development, in the form of a rural hotel. With a construction area of 4,223m2, it has 74 accommodation units, a restaurant space, swimming pools and a spa.Far from the confusion of the Alentejo coast, here you can feel the strength of the four elements in their total splendor, allowing you to find peace and enjoy an infinitely beautiful landscape.The estate has 14 hectares of pure green and pleasure in its wildest and most natural state, while allowing easy access to the best beaches in Portugal.
