Exclusive Two bedroom apartment in former Lisbon Palace

Discover this elegant apartment located in one of the most prestigious private condominiums in Lisbon, inserted in the historic Palace of the Counts of Mesquitela. This unique property combines the charm of seventeenth-century architecture with the comfort of modernity.

The apartment consists of two suites with built-in wardrobes, a spacious living room with excellent light and a balcony overlooking a beautiful and serene interior garden with about 800 m2. The kitchen is fully equipped, offering functionality and modernity, and there is also a guest toilet. It includes air conditioning, garage and storage room.

The property is in excellent condition, being ready to move in. It is the ideal choice for those looking for quality of life with privacy and security.
Built in the seventeenth century by the Kingdom's chief accountant, D. Gonçalo de Sousa Macedo, the Palace of the Counts of Mesquitela was carefully restored in 2008 by Euronápoles, in a project signed by the renowned architect Diogo Lima Mayer. Respecting the heritage value and adding modernity, the palace is today an example of urban rehabilitation that balances the past and the present.

Located in one of the most emblematic areas of Lisbon, the Palace of the Counts of Mesquitela benefits from proximity to points of interest such as Chiado and Baixa de Lisboa, Praça das Flores and Príncipe Real. Here, you can enjoy green spaces, local shops, excellent restaurants and public transport with easy access to the city's main thoroughfares.
Don't miss the opportunity to live in a space where history and sophistication meet.
