Casa Verde - A luxury architectural retreat with Art Deco soul and sea view.

With sweeping ocean views, this unique property unfolds over 1,600 sqm of gross area, spread across five levels connected by a private elevator. A bold fusion between 1940s Art Deco and modern design, Casa Verde offers the perfect balance of elegance, privacy, and function.

Set on a terraced plot with manicured gardens, outdoor lounges, and a private pool, the estate includes seven en-suite bedrooms divided between North and South Wings – ideal for maintaining privacy while hosting.

From the main entrance on the third level, you'll access the two key living areas: in the South Wing, a light-filled modern lounge opening onto the garden and pool; in the North Wing, an open-concept living and dining area with terrace, plus a fully equipped entertaining kitchen supported by a secondary service kitchen.

Upstairs on level four: the primary suite – with ocean views, verandas, dressing area, and a spa-style bathroom with jacuzzi. Adjacent, a secondary en-suite, perfect for a nursery or office.

The top floor is made for slow mornings and long evenings – a panoramic living area bathed in light, a wraparound terrace with sea views, guest WC, and a food elevator with direct kitchen access.

Descending to level two: a full service area with staff quarters, laundry, and storage. The South Wing here features a multi-level lounge and four en-suite bedrooms with floor-to-ceiling windows and garden views, plus a bonus room ideal for a home cinema or kids' zone.

On the ground level, the double-height garage fits at least four cars and connects directly to the private gated entrance.

Walking distance from the Estoril promenade, beach, and top local spots, Casa Verde is a statement estate with timeless style and absolute privacy.
