You enter the home directly into a spacious living dining area, and immediately notice a wonderful flow of light, along with the feature double height ceiling in the lounge. The kitchen is modern, spacious, and well equipped, also with plenty of light and direct access to its own balcony. The ground level hosts one of the bedroom suites, with a private bathroom and ample wardrobe space. Upstairs, the first floor landing is spacious enough to create an office space or cozy library. This level hosts two bedroom suites, each with a private en suite bathroom, and access to a south facing balcony. The master suite is generous in size and offers wall-to-wall wardrobes. Further features include air-conditioning for both heating and cooling, quality double glazed windows with electric roller blinds, and private parking for up to 4 cars in the secure underground garage. Owners also have access to a lovely communal pool. If you're looking for a spacious home, with easy maintenance, and enjoy living near the beach, contact us to schedule your viewing.
