Set within an expansive private estate close to Carvoeiro, this five-bedroom villa offers a rare balance of space, privacy and sea views, just a short drive from the Algarve's most sought-after lifestyle amenities and beaches. Positioned on a large plot and enjoying a total built area of approximately 635 m², the property is designed for comfortable family living and refined entertaining, with a layout that prioritizes light, flow and connection to the outdoors. The interiors are generous, centered around a spacious living and dining area with fireplaces and direct access to covered terraces overlooking the gardens and heated swimming pool. A large, fully fitted kitchen provides excellent functionality, complemented by practical service areas. Bedrooms are arranged across two levels, all benefiting from fitted wardrobes, en-suite facilities and some with access to terraces with garden or sea views. A custom-designed marble staircase adds architectural presence, while quality materials and craftsmanship throughout reflect a home built for longevity rather than trend. Outdoor living is a defining...
