Nestled within walking distance of the beach and all the amenities of the highly sought-after coastal village of Praia da Luz, this exceptional three-bedroom, three-bathroom villa offers a rare combination of privacy, space, and lifestyle. Set on an impressive 3,000m² plot, the property enjoys a prime central location while being surrounded by mature gardens and established vegetation, creating a peaceful oasis away from the hustle and bustle. The expansive grounds provide complete privacy and a wonderful connection to nature, while elevated views extend through the village and to the sea. The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged over two levels. The upper floor hosts a spacious lounge and bright conservatory, both perfectly positioned to take advantage of the beautiful views over the private grounds and stretching towards the Atlantic Ocean. This level also features a generous master bedroom suite, providing a peaceful retreat away from the guest accommodation. A spacious entrance hall makes an immediate impression, highlighted by a bespoke circular staircase that forms the centrepiece of...
