Occupying a generous, beautifully landscaped plot, the property is enveloped by mature gardens that provide complete privacy and a wonderful sense of seclusion. Elevated above the surrounding countryside, the villa enjoys uninterrupted views across Lagos Bay, creating a spectacular backdrop that changes beautifully throughout the day. Originally built during the 1980s as a much-loved family retreat, the residence has been carefully maintained and thoughtfully updated over the years. While perfectly comfortable as it stands, it offers exciting potential for a sensitive renovation that could transform it into a striking contemporary home while preserving its warmth and character. The accommodation has been designed with generous proportions throughout, comprising three spacious bedrooms, three bathrooms, an inviting living room, a large kitchen, and a separate utility room. The practical layout provides an excellent framework for modernisation, with ample opportunity to reimagine the interiors to suit today's lifestyle while taking full advantage of the exceptional outlook. The setting is equa...
