Nestled in a tranquil and highly sought-after location just minutes from Carvoeiro, this beautifully renovated villa is set on a 9.000 m² plot surrounded by nature offering complete privacy and far-reaching views. As you enter the property through electric gates, a spacious driveway welcomes you, offering ample parking and the possibility to add a car port. The main residence unfolds with an inviting entrance hall that leads into an open-plan living room with a wood-burning fireplace and large dining area which opens onto an enclosed terrace complete with a bar. This outdoor space is ideal for year-round entertaining with views over the heated pool and landscaped gardens. The heart of the home is the fully equipped open-plan kitchen, featuring Bosch appliances and a Samsung American-style refrigerator, offering direct access to the outdoor area and a seamless connection to the garden. Designed for comfortable family living, the villa comprises two guest bedrooms, a stylish social bathroom, and a generous master suite. Another guest room is accessible from outside. Adjacent to the main house is a full...
