Tucked into the lush, forested hills of Caldas de Monchique, this remarkable estate spans nearly four hectares of pure tranquillity. Two beautifully maintained residences offer a rare blend of privacy, flexibility and character—perfect for multigenerational living, boutique hospitality, or a peaceful retreat. The original villa, Foz do Banho, is a masterpiece of elegance and light. Accessed via a charming courtyard, the home opens to a generous living room with soaring ceilings, a fireplace, and Patio doors framing verdant vistas. A formal dining room, butler’s pantry, and fully equipped kitchen flow from the heart of the home, while a shaded patio invites al fresco dining. Nearby, one of the most captivating pools in the Algarve offers total immersion in nature. This single-storey residence includes four spacious bedrooms (three en-suite), a guest WC, and a large garage. Comfort is ensured year-round with central heating and double glazing. A short stroll away lies Ribeira do Banho, a more recent construction echoing the symmetry and style of the main house. On the ground floor: four en-sui...
