3 Bedroom Furnished House in Private Condominium | Ajuda, Funchal

In Ajuda, one of the most prestigious areas of Funchal, there is a house that is not limited to being just a house — it is a piece of architecture signed by Paulo David, where each line was designed to live with light, space and serenity. Fully furnished and ready to move in, the interior reveals a rare balance between contemporary elegance and real everyday comfort. The social area opens up naturally, creating a fluid environment between the living room and the modern equipped kitchen, while the suite and the two bedrooms offer quiet privacy, designed to rest without haste. But it is abroad that the experience changes scale. A private deck with more than 50 m², jacuzzi and an uninterrupted Atlantic view turns the simple late afternoon into a ritual. Here, time slows down. Here, the house breathes. Functionality accompanies aesthetics: garage for two cars, additional parking and immediate proximity to services, shops and main accesses — all close by, without giving up the silence and discretion of a private condominium. More than a 3 bedroom villa, it is a place to live with intention. Ra...
