A TRADITIONAL MOORISH VILLA

Situated moments from the heart of Quinta do Lago, this exceptional eight-bedroom estate occupies an expansive plot, offering rare space and privacy within such a central setting.

Set behind fully enclosed, beautifully maintained grounds, the property reveals a distinctive architectural identity, where traditional Moorish influences are softened by a relaxed, Ibiza-inspired atmosphere. The result is a home with both character and charm, balancing structure with a more informal, lifestyle led approach to design.

A grand entrance hall introduces the interiors, where a sweeping marble staircase creates a strong sense of arrival. The main residence comprises three en-suite bedrooms and two bedrooms sharing a bathroom, while the principal suite occupies the entire first floor, complete with a private terrace overlooking the gardens.

The living spaces are arranged to feel open yet intimate, suited to both everyday living and entertaining. At the centre, a bespoke kitchen sits beneath a striking domed skylight, bringing natural light throughout the day. The adjacent sunken living room, anchored by a fireplace, opens onto the grounds, reinforcing the connection between indoor and outdoor living.

Additional accommodation is positioned across the estate, including a detached two-bedroom guest house and a separate staff and laundry annexe, allowing for privacy and flexibility when hosting.

The grounds offer a complete private retreat. A large swimming pool is complemented by a children's pool, with generous terraces and multiple outdoor dining areas throughout the gardens. Sporting facilities include a full-size floodlit tennis court and a pétanque area, while a dedicated leisure lodge with snooker and games space adds another dimension to the lifestyle offering.

Despite its seclusion, the property remains minutes from the golf courses, restaurants and coastline that define life in Quinta do Lago, creating a setting that is both private and connected. A substantial and distinctive estate, suited to those seeking space, privacy and a relaxed interpretation of luxury living in the Central Algarve.
