Historic estate with a 12th-century farmhouse and 132 hectares between Girona and Costa Brava

It is a unique heritage asset from the twelfth century, located in the Gironès, in a strategic location between the city of Girona and the Costa Brava. It is a large-scale property, with approximately 2,850 m² built and 132 hectares of continuous land, which combines historic architecture, existing infrastructure and development capacity in the same set. The main farmhouse, of a stately nature, preserves the authenticity of its origin with large interior spaces, enclosed patios and a distribution that allows for a clear differentiation of private, guest and service areas. The complex is completed with a historic chapel, auxiliary housing, annexes and complementary buildings that provide flexibility of use. At the productive level, the farm has an olive grove in production (35 ha), farmland, forest areas and a set of large agricultural warehouses, as well as its own water infrastructure (well and pond), which gives it autonomy and agro-industrial potential. One of the differentiating elements is its excellent connectivity: just a few minutes from Girona (international airport and AVE), wit...
