Villas with a view in Polop

In an elevated position overlooking the bay of Altea, this development of detached homes offers a careful balance between privacy, landscape and proximity to the main centres of the Costa Blanca North. Located in Polop, a few minutes from La Nucía and with quick access to Altea and Benidorm, the homes are integrated into a natural environment where open views and a feeling of spaciousness predominate. The project is designed for those who value outdoor life, light and connection with the environment. The available properties have 3 and 4 bedroom configurations, with functional layouts and spaces designed for daily use and extended stays. The outdoor areas take centre stage through private gardens, terraces and solarium, with the possibility of incorporating a private pool depending on the type. The architecture combines contemporary lines with durable materials, while the interior is committed to open spaces, integrated kitchen and solutions that promote comfort all year round. The incorporation of efficient systems, such as ducted air conditioning and aerothermal energy, reinforces the func...
