RENOVATED VILLA IN A GOLFING COMMUNITY

Set within the leafy surroundings of Vila Sol, just minutes from Vilamoura's marina and coastline, this is a home that immediately feels easy to live in — calm, considered and quietly refined.

The villa has been thoughtfully upgraded to create a home where everything feels considered, yet nothing feels complicated. Light moves naturally through the interiors, drawing you into open living spaces designed to be both welcoming and functional, whether for relaxed family time or hosting friends.

At the heart of the home, a sleek, fully equipped kitchen connects seamlessly with the main living areas, flowing out to the exterior terrace. Beautifully finished bathrooms bring a sense of cohesion and understated quality throughout. The accommodation includes three bedroom suites across the ground and first floors, including the principal suite.

One of the home's standout features lies on the lower level, where a fully independent living space offers genuine flexibility. Complete with its own bedroom, lounge, kitchenette and bathroom, it works equally well for visiting family, extended stays or simply giving everyone their own space. The addition of a dedicated cinema room makes this level as enjoyable as it is practical.

Outside, the lifestyle shifts naturally towards the Algarve's outdoor rhythm. Terraces wrap around the home, leading to a heated swimming pool that becomes the focal point for long afternoons and relaxed evenings. It's a setting designed for slowing down, entertaining and making the most of the climate.

Comfort has been carefully considered, with underfloor heating and solar energy systems supporting year-round living in a way that feels both efficient and effortless.

Vila Sol itself offers a well-established, green environment centred around its golf course, where life feels a little more relaxed yet remains closely connected to the energy of Vilamoura.

This is a home that adapts easily — whether as a permanent base, a lock-up-and-leave retreat, or an investment with strong rental appeal — but above all, it's a place designed to be enjoyed from the moment you arrive.
