Habitable Country Estate with Chapel, Vineyards and Natural Spring in Valdreu | Vila Verde

 A Country Estate with Soul in Valdreu

Some properties are more than just houses.
They are places where time slows down, nature embraces you and history remains alive.

This habitable country estate in Valdreu is one of those rare places.

Set in a serene rural environment, the property consists of two two-storey traditional stone houses, preserving the authentic Minho architecture, ready to be lived in and offering excellent potential for appreciation.

The estate also features unique and distinctive elements:

Private chapel within the property, rich in history and meaning

Traditional granary, a symbol of rural heritage

Vineyards and abundant vegetation, surrounding the entire property

Water tank supplied by a natural spring within the estate, a valuable natural resource

Extensive land, ideal for leisure, cultivation or tourism development

A property designed for those seeking authenticity, tranquillity and a close connection with nature, whether as a permanent home, family retreat, second residence or rural tourism investment.

Here, every corner tells a story.
And the next one could be yours.
