Villa in golf and nature

In the well-kept and discreet surroundings of Desert Springs Golf Club, this villa offers a way of life marked by calm, space and connection with nature. The house is integrated into a private residential complex, organized around landscaped gardens and shared swimming pools, generating a balanced environment between privacy and community. Its architecture combines traditional references from the Almanzora valley with contemporary interiors, designed to favour natural light and functionality. Distributed over two floors, the property has three bedrooms and two bathrooms, with open spaces connecting the living room, dining room and equipped kitchen. The terraces, together with the private garden, extend the house to the outside, creating areas designed for rest and outdoor life. The house has air conditioning, double glazing and fitted wardrobes, as well as a parking space. Its orientation and location within the resort allow you to enjoy open views of the golf course and the mountains, in a quiet and well-connected environment. Located just minutes from the Mediterranean coast, this prope...
